- The Judges decision is final. People's Choice is decided by votes both at event and on social channels.
- The organisers may conduct a preselection process and as a result not all artwork is guaranteed to be hung. The organisers reserve the right to refuse inappropriate material.
- All artworks are to remain for the duration of the exhibition. The artist agrees to allow the organisers to have non-exclusive rights to use images of artwork for promotional purposes.
- No responsibility is taken for uncollected artworks (by 12 noon Monday 6 July 2020). Uncollected artworks will be deemed abandoned goods and disposed of accordingly.
- All care will be taken by the organisers, but the organisers will not be held responsible for loss or damage of artwork at the exhibition or in transit. It is recommended artists insure their own artworks.
- All expenses in conjunction with forwarding, packing and returning artworks will be at the expense of the owner of the artwork (artist or guardian)

Framing Advice

Expensive professional frames are not a requirement and do not affect judging. Frames from Kmart or similar are acceptable and cost effective.

Note: A stretched canvas is considered framed - as long as it has a string across back for hanging.
